POLICY FOR GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL CELL

1. Committee for Grievance Redressal Cell is framed with the Principal as Chairman, two senior faculty members and student's representatives.
2. During the Annual Awareness Programme, an awareness is created amongst the students regarding the existence of grievance redressal cell.
3. The Grievances either individual or general Grievances affecting student community can be brought to the notice of the committee either informally or by lodging a written complaint or through suggestion box.
4. A meeting of the committee has to be scheduled once in a month or instantly in case of urgency of grievances to be addressed.
5. Any Grievance lodged has to be redressed within the shortest possible time maximum within seven days.
6. The Grievance Redressal Committee members keep vigilance by taking timely rounds of the college campus.

POLICY FOR ANTI RAGGING CELL

1. Committee for Anti Ragging Cell is framed with Principal as Chairman, with minimum two senior faculty members and two student's representatives.
2. During the Annual Awareness Programme, awareness is created amongst the students regarding the existence of this students support cell.
3. Awareness is created among the students regarding the laws against ragging and legal support on the occurrence of such cases through workshops by inviting Police Officers, Lawyers and dignitaries from Women and Child Welfare Departments as resource persons.
4. The placards displayed in the campus, alarm the students against such misdeeds.
5. The discipline Committee keeps vigilance in the college campus to guard against any Mis-happenings.
6. The grieved students may lodge a complaint to the concerned authorities in person or through suggestion box.
7. In case of any occurrence of such cases the concerned students are asked to face the Enquiry from the committee and justice would be provided to the grieved students.
8. The mentor mentee system acts as a aid to psychologically mould the students towards Virtuous behavior.
